TIPS AND SECRETS
on
How Ya'll Ken Watch A Rasslin Match, Cajun Style

Rasslin is real easy to watch, an a lot o'fun t'boot. Dem two cajun boys pair off in de middle of dat mat an have at each odder. Dey get 6 minutes to pin each odder, but if dat don't work, the ref gives dem points fo making good moves, an at de end, de one dat got de mostest, wins.

Points got scored like dis:

When one boy trows down de odder, or tackles him good, an hangs on, dat's a TAKEDOWN, fo 2 points.

Afta one boy's been took down, if he get away, dat's an ESCAPE, fo 1 point.

Afta de one boy's been took down, an he get from bottom to de top of de odder boy, all in one slick move, dat's a REVERSAL, fo 2 points.

Mais sometime, one boy will come clost to pinnin de odder, but he don't quite get it. Dat's a NEAR FALL, fo 2 points. But if he hold onto dat position fo 5 seconds, he get 3 points. Ya'll can watch the ref moving his hand as he count to 5. (Ya'll know dem ignorant zebras can't count no higher, no way, Cher). Remember, only de boy what's in control ken score dese near-falls. Mais cher, if yo shoulder blades got stuck to de mat, you pinned, and it don't matter where you be, or what de score is, you done lost.

Points ken also get scored by breakin de rule. Some holds is barred, an so is on purpose hurtin'. But watch out fo STALLIN'. Dose boys got to be rasslin all de time or dey be in trouble, ya. Boat of dem got to be goin fo takedowns on dere feet, or when dey's down on dat mat, de top man's got to be goin fo de pin, and de bottom man's got to be gettin out (or tryin'). If dey got it in dere heads to take a rest out dere, and just hang on, why the ref will jump on dat quicker den a cajun on boudin.

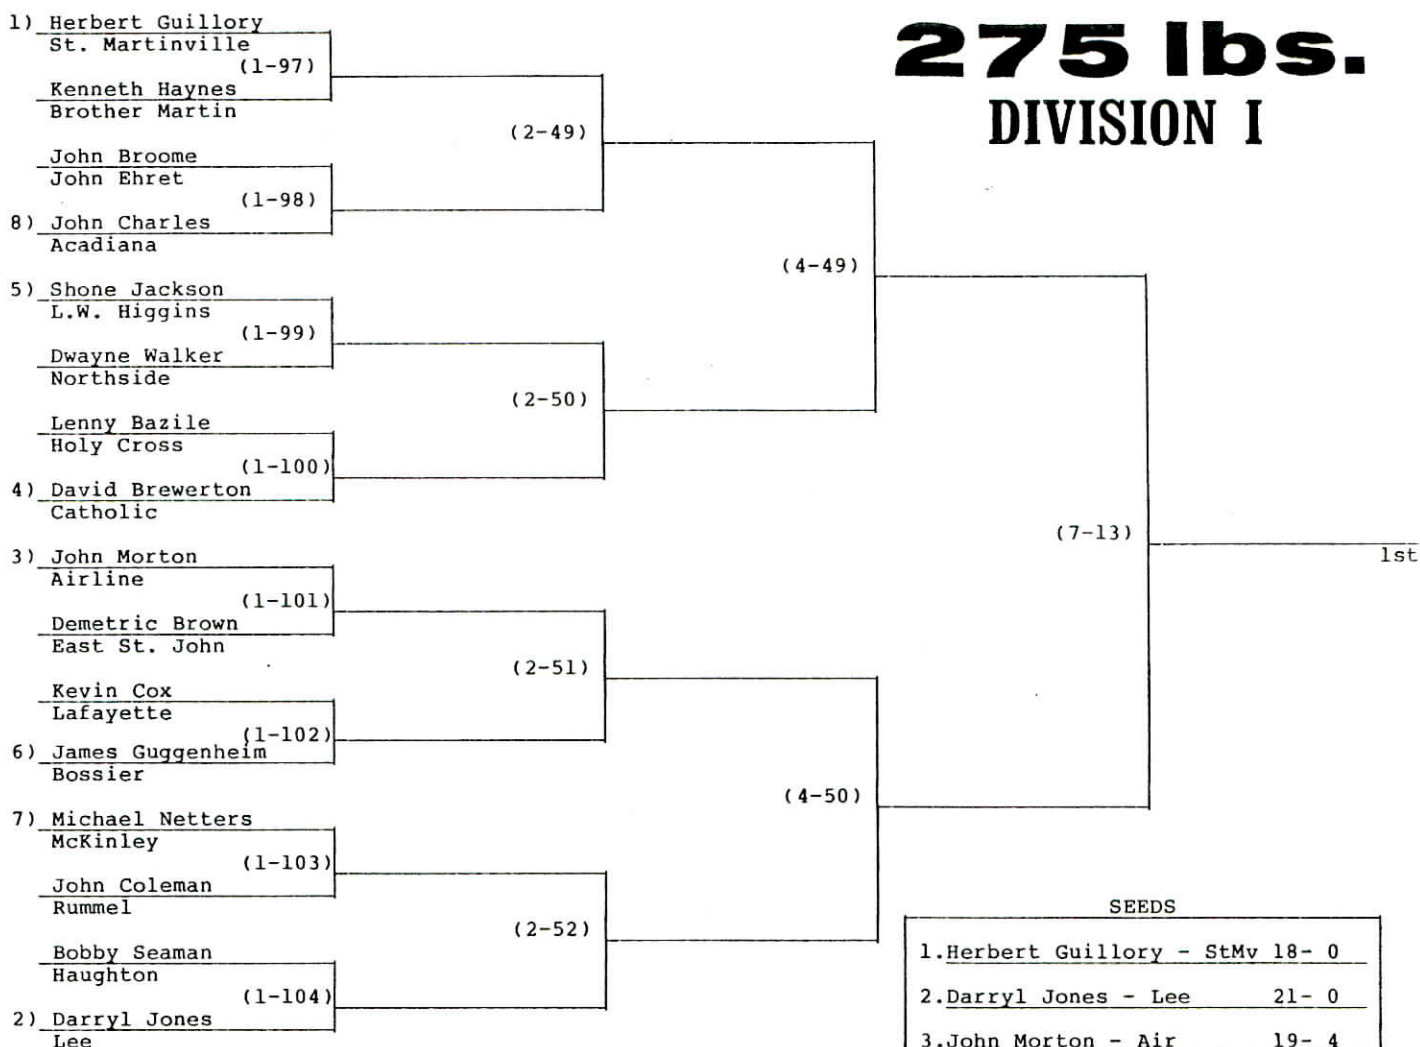

Mais just so you ken know, de match is broke into three equal periods, 2 minutes fo de first, and 2 fo de second and tird. In defirst, boat boys start up on dere feet. Fo de second, de ref flips a coin, an de winner picks to start in de UP, DOWN, or STANDING starting position or chooses to wait until 3rd period fo his choice. In 3rd period, de odder boy gets his choice of UP, DOWN, or STANDING. When dey go out of bounds, de ref starts dem in de middle, de same way as dey wuz when dey went out.

If everyting is all tied up when dey's done, de boys get a minute to rest, and den dey go on an overtime battle. Dis is a regular bout, but each period is 1 minute long, so de whole ting is only an extra 3 minutes. Den, if dere isn't no winner, the ref goes to dat rule book, and dat book dere, will tell him who de winner is.

Befo ya'll get to watchin, dere is two more tings you should know bout rasslin'. If you want to be de winner of a match, never rassel wit an aligator, or try to steal a cajun's boudin.

"The Wrestler"
By Sandra Rohrer
Waupum, Wisconsin

I ask myself why young men wrestle at least one hundred times in a year
I've struggled to find an answer to that and it never is quite clear.

In football or in basketball
there is someone else that one can blame.
But in wrestling, when you step on the mat
Everybody knows your name.

So when the hip throw fails or the cradle slips and the lights are what you see,
The only thing that you can say is
"The mistake was made by me."

And who would want to play a game
Where, first you must get thinner,
Where day after day and week after week
You must say "No" to dinner.

How can you stand the anxiety?
"Please, God, let that scale break!"
And the fear of the coach, "You're how much over?!!"
Would make a wrestler tremble and shake.

So three quarters over before the match
You jump that rope and run.
You're exhausted and weak and all burned out
And the match hasn't even begun.

Then there's Christmas time
And, "Come on honey, eat!!"
To turn down Grandma's pleas to snack
Is a monumental feat.

Why don't we parents stomp our feet
And cry out, "That's Enough!!"
Admittedly, I've tried it once
And once he called my bluff.

"You will not go to 98 lbs.
Or you'll pack your bags and roam."
He wrestled then at 98 lbs.
And three years later, still lives at home.

O.K. Now, why would you play a game
Where you die for six minutes or so,
And your mouth won't spit, your muscles are rubber
And from the coach comes, "Suck it in and go!"
But you're on your back and losing the match
And you know you could make it short.
And you wonder what on earth you are doing there
When you could be playing a much easier sport.

Then you hear the crowd, the coaches and team
They all are making demands.
Why you don't give up (and you never do)
I'll never understand.

Oh, those tournaments on Saturdays
You go from early morn 'til late at night--
Those below zero days and a cold hard bus
When sleeping in would feel just right.

And there are so many things to remember to bring
Your food, your shoes, your lock.
And the coach shouts back, "Did you remember to bring _____?"
And you panic, "Oh no, I forgot!!"

To find a uniform or some one else's shoes to fit
Without a certain coach getting wise,
Is really a form of genius,
But often necessary to prevent your demise.

And say, why would you want to play a game
Where all you do is wait?
At tournaments (especially heavier weights) it takes hours and more
Before you decide your fate.

You wrestle six minutes and win or lose
And then you wait again.
The agony, tenseness, the butterflies
Would bring down the stoutest of men.

Really--isn't there something that you could do
That would be much more fun?
Like hanging eight hours by your fingernails
Or doing a fifty mile run.

Wrestling's a sport that makes demands
Of time, of energy, of mind.
A sport that asks for true dedication--
The truest one can find.

It's a sport of ups and a sport of downs.
It's a sport of tears and smiles.
It's a sport of pain and sport of elation.
A sport that takes going that extra mile.

It's a sport of handshakes and pats on the back
And hugs when you're feeling bad.
It's a sport of winning even though you lost
Cause the coach knows you gave all you had.

It's a sport of medals you won as a team
And of medals you won on your own.
It's a sport that says you must play a team game,
Yet, out on that mat you're alone.

It's a sport of parents and coaches, cheerleaders and fans,
A sport of uniqueness and sharing;
A sport where the intenseness of this unique little group
Is displayed by genuine caring.

It's a sport of laughter and inside jokes,
Of togetherness found in no other game,
Where Moms and Dads cry for boys not their own
No other sport can make this claim.

It's a sport where coaches are with their wrestlers
So many hours a week,
That they feel each young man's ups and downs;
They experience all their valleys and peaks.

It's a sport of brothers, a sport of sisters
Who show how much they care.
They change their schedules to cheer brothers on,
They come from everywhere!!

It's a sport that builds character through self-discipline
Like no other sport that's for sure.
It's a sport that asks all that a boy can give
Then gives it all back and more!!

Oh my, I think I'm beginning to see,
Though I've asked at least ten times ten,
Wrestling's a sport that's taken our boys
And turned them into men.

So never again will I ponder and ask,
I've found the answer to my question,
Young men wrestle because--from no other sport
Can they derive the overall, incomparable

THE ULTIMATE SATISFACTION!!

OUTSTANDING WRESTLER: _____

GENERAL RULES OF WRESTLING

Matches in the Championship bracket are six minutes long, divided into three periods of two minutes each. The first two-minute period will start from a standing, neutral position. If no fall occurs during the first period, the referee shall flip a coin or disc to determine which wrestler has first choice. The referee shall begin the second period with the wrestler that has the choice selecting up, down, neutral or deferring his choice until the third period. The wrestler who doesn't have first choice, may select up, down, or neutral when it is his choice.

Matches in the Consolation bracket are five minutes in length (1-2-2).

OVERTIMES - In Tournament competition when there is a tie in points at the end of the regular match, the wrestlers will wrestle three extra one-minute periods. There shall be a one-minute rest between the regular match and the first overtime period only.

A FALL occurs when either wrestler has held his opponent's shoulders to the mat for a period of two consecutive seconds. This terminates the match.

A DECISION is awarded to the contestant who scores the greater number of points in a match where no fall occurs.

A MAJOR DECISION is defined as one where the winner's score exceeds the loser's by at least 8 and fewer than 15 points.

A TECHNICAL FALL occurs when a wrestler has earned a 15 point advantage over his opponent. This terminates the match.

INDIVIDUAL SCORING

1. A Takedown occurs when, from a neutral position, a wrestler gains control over his opponent down on the mat while the supporting points of either wrestler are inbounds. A Takedown scores 2 points.
2. An Escape occurs when the defensive wrestler gains a neutral position and his opponent has lost control, while the supporting points of either wrestler are inbounds. An Escape scores 1 point.
3. A Reversal occurs when the defensive wrestler comes from underneath and goes behind his opponent either on the mat or in a rear standing position, thus scoring 2 Points.
4. A Near Fall is a position in which the offensive wrestler has control of his opponent in a pinning situation and both shoulders or scapulae of the defensive wrestler are held for 2 seconds within four inches of the mat or less; or when one shoulder or scapula of the defensive wrestler is touching the mat and the other shoulder or scapula is held at an angle of 45 degrees or less with the mat for 2 seconds; or when the defensive wrestler is held for 2 seconds in a high bridge or on both elbows. Two points awarded for such near fall situations. A continuous roll-through is not to be considered a near fall. The criteria for a near fall having been met uninterrupted for five seconds, three points shall be awarded.
5. Penalty points are also awarded for infraction of the rules, by scoring 1 point for the first penalty, 1 point for the second penalty and 2 points for the third penalty. A warning is not considered a penalty.
